

AUTHOR VISIT LEN VLAHOS

Thursday, April 21st

Students will get to meet and hear from young adult author Len Vlahos at an assembly during school hours on April 21st. Mr. Vlahos will discuss his new book, Scar Girl, a sequel to his acclaimed title, The Scar Boys. Len Vlahos dropped out of NYU film school at the age of 19 to go on the road with a touring punk/pop band called the Woofing Cookies, which eventually became the backdrop for The Scar Boys. He now works in the book industry and lives with his wife and two children in Connecticut. You can visit him online at www.lenvlahos.com and follow him on Facebook and Twitter @LenVlahos.

SCAR GIRL

Love, music, and heartbreak take the stage in Scar Girl, the sequel to the William C. Morris YA Debut Award Finalist, The Scar Boys. Readers listen in on an interview with band members Cheyenne, Harry, and Richie after they reach the pinnacle of success.

“Vlahos...has succeeded in creating a sequel every bit as compelling and emotionally charged as its predecessor. The pulsating energy formed by creating music is what bonds the band together. This current will pull readers in in hopes that each one of the Scar Boys will find his or her way to resilience through the darkest of times. Like its predecessor, this novel will leave readers aching for an encore.” —Kirkus
